Licensing rules in Germany:

1. The doctor needs to pass a qualifying test called “Kenntnisprüfung” for converting their temporary medical license to the permanent medical practice license. The responsibility would lie with the doctor to pass this test on his own within a period of 18 months. There are only 3 attempts allowed for this exam.
2. Aprobation application can only be given at the start of the Assistant Doctors job.
3. Minimum level of language proficiency for the medical language + observer-ship program would be TELC C1. Accordingly, before you are joined for TELC B2 and TELC C1 level, you must pass the language test.
4. The prices mentioned are for as on today and the main cost of “Approbation services” may change by 15% maximum since the same needs to be applied after 1 year.

TRAVEL EXPENSES COVER (OPTIONAL):

- Air Ticket from India to German city
- Train ticket / Metro city from Frankfurt to your city (Landing arrangements)
- Visa application and documentations including embassy charges
- Landing arrangements for Airport Pick up & Drop to hostel / apartment.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF CONTRACT:

1. CANCELLATION POLICY: (STUDENT CANCELS AFTER REGISTRATION):

Cancelation Period	Reason of Deduction	Amount Deducted
90 days before departure	Towards Processing Fees	30% of the Paid amount
60 days before departure	Towards University arrangements	60% of the Paid amount
30 days before departure	Towards travel arrangements	90% of the paid amount

The departure date would be considered as 6 months maximum from the date of registration by the student.

2. IN CASE OF VISA REJECTION

It may be noted that issuance of Visa is sole authority of German consulate and cannot be guaranteed by MOKSH since it involves Visa interview & the student confidence and performance during the same. The current ratio of success for Visa with MOKSH is above 85% success for Germany. In case of Visa application rejection, MOKSH would refund 50% of the amount paid to MOKSH, India and 100% MOKSH Germany Account (except for the banking charge).
